

Remarks

Applicants thank Examiner Ngo for examining this application. In response to the Office action of September 16, 2004, applicants amend the application as follows:

1. Applicants cancel claims 12 – 27 to be examined at a later time.
2. Applicants insert new claims 28 – 30. The new claims are semiconductor device claims and are fully supported in the original specification and the original drawing figures.

Applicants respectfully request the entering of the amendments to the application and timely examination and allowance of the claims.

Respectfully submitted,

Yingsheng Tung
